VIRTUAL COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF OHIO SUPERINTENDENT ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

COLUMBUS, OH (Nov. 15, 2006) –Don Musick, superintendent of the Virtual Community School of Ohio (VCS Ohio), has announced his retirement, effective December 29, 2006. VCS Ohio was one of the pioneers in K-12 online education in Ohio, and Mr. Musick was instrumental in forming the school six years ago. He has been superintendent since the school's inception.

"It has been my pleasure to work with the dedicated administrators, teachers and staff at VCS Ohio to bring a great concept to fruition and make it work for the past six years. It is an endeavor which has been a challenge, but extremely rewarding," Musick stated.

Musick has 32 years of professional experience in a wide spectrum of educational roles, including 13 years of teaching experience at the elementary, middle and high school levels. In addition to teaching, he has an extensive background in school administration, having served as a director of adult education, assistant principal, director of curriculum, math and science coordinator and technology supervisor.

Musick is a graduate of Marshall University in Huntington, WV where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Comprehensive Business and a master's degree in Educational Administration and Supervision. He completed his superintendent's certification at Ohio University.

Mr. Musick's successor will be announced in the near future.

The Virtual Community School of Ohio offers students a high-quality, accredited, online K-12 education from the comfort and safety of their home. The mission of VCS Ohio is to educate students through a quality virtual experience.
