VIRTUAL COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF OHIO NAMES NEW SUPERINTENDENT

FORMER BOARD MEMBER BRINGS YEARS OF EXPERIENCE TO THE ROLE

COLUMBUS, OH (Jan. 17, 2007) –The Virtual Community School of Ohio (VCS Ohio) has named James McCord, of Dublin, its new superintendent. McCord is an experienced educator and administrator, as well as a former VCS Ohio board member. He succeeds former superintendent, Don Musick, who retired at the end of 2006.

“I am honored to fill this role with VCS Ohio. My mission is to make a difference in the lives of our students, and I think my experience in both traditional and online education will give me the perspective needed to make a positive impact,” McCord stated.

McCord has 40 years of experience in education, consisting of positions in teaching, administration and consulting. McCord spent 14 years with Granville Exempted Village Schools, serving as superintendent and high school principal. He also spent 10 years as the principal at West Liberty-Salem High School. McCord is the founder of four companies dealing with strategic planning, leadership development and quality improvement. Additionally, McCord is a Vietnam veteran, serving as a captain in the United States Air Force.

The Virtual Community School of Ohio offers students a high-quality, accredited, online K-12 education from the comfort and safety of their home. The mission of VCS Ohio is to educate students through quality virtual experiences.
