LOCAL TEACHER RECEIVES EDUCATION AWARD

Exceeds expectations and takes on additional responsibilities

COLUMBUS, OHIO (September 21, 2009) – Virtual Community School of Ohio (VCS Ohio) teacher Christian McCloskey of Westerville, received the “Teacher of the Quarter” award at the 2009 VCS Ohio Opening Day ceremony. McCloskey was selected by the management team for revising and improving the parent lounge, which serves as a resource for VCS families, as well as, taking on additional responsibilities and continually looking for ways to utilize technology. He has been with VCS for two years and teaches high school social studies.

“More than expected” was the theme of the Opening Day ceremony, held on Sept. 2 at the Courtyard Columbus West. A variety of awards were given such as “External Services Site of the Year” and “Distinguished Leader Award.”

“I am very proud of all our teachers and staff members and their achievements in the past year.” stated James McCord, VCS Ohio superintendent. “They have worked very hard and will continue to make a positive impact on our students.”
