HILLIARD RESIDENT EARNS SALUTATORIAN HONORS AT SIXTEEN

COLUMBUS, OH (May 25, 2010) – Axel Boice, of Hilliard, was recently named the salutatorian of the 2010 graduating class of Virtual Community School of Ohio (VCS Ohio). VCS Ohio's online curriculum and flexible schedule allowed Boice to graduate earlier than most of his peers. VCS Ohio honored the class of 2010 at a graduation ceremony this past Saturday at the Bridgewater Conference Center in Powell, Ohio. This year's 127 graduates make up the eighth graduating class since VCS Ohio's inception in 2002.

In his commencement speech, Boice emphasized the importance of self motivation in an online school setting. "The students at VCS face a bigger challenge than kids who attend a traditional school, that challenge is self motivation. It's something that most kids don't have yet, and one of the little things that make VCS students so amazing," stated Boice.

VCS Ohio students choose to attend school online for a variety of personal and philosophical reasons. All students benefit from the flexibility and safety that an online learning environment provides. The accredited teachers and comprehensive curriculum at VCS have prepared the class of 2010 for furthering their education in college or entering the workforce.

Virtual Community School of Ohio offers students in grades K-12 a high-quality, accredited online education from the comfort and safety of their homes. The mission of VCS Ohio is to make a difference in the life of a student.
